Robert L. and Fay M. Elliot Scholarship Applications Available Through Community Foundation

The children of Robert L. and Fay M. Elliot established this scholarship fund in 2007 to honor the memory of their parents who taught in the Wabash City School System for many years.

Eligible candidates must have graduated from Wabash High School prior to July of the current school year. Candidates must be pursuing a four-year undergraduate degree in education or a teaching profession from an accredited institution of higher education. Students must have at least a "C" grade point average (5.0/12.0 scale). The scholarship is a one-time award for full-time or part-time study. Selection will be based on financial need, a statement from the applicant detailing his/her plans for the future and academic performance. Information gained from all aspects of the application will enter into the selection process.

Applications for the Robert L. & Fay M. Elliott Scholarship are available at the Community Foundation offices or can be downloaded from the scholarship page at www.cfwabash.org. The applications are due to the Community Foundation of Wabash County, 218 East Main, North Manchester by March 30, 2007.

Contributions to this scholarship fund may be made directly to the Community Foundation. Gifts of any size are welcome and they help grow the scholarship endowment. Interest earned by the endowment is used to fund this award.

The Community Foundation of Wabash County is a nonprofit public charity established in 1954 to serve donors, award grants, and provide leadership to improve Wabash County forever. The Foundation, which serves all of Wabash County, is located at 218 E. Main Street in North Manchester. The office phone number is 260-982-4824. The website address is www.cfwabash.org.
