Community Foundation to hold free workshop for grant applicants

The Community Foundation of Wabash County will present a free “Write it Right” Foundation grant application workshop on Wednesday, February 25, 2008 at the Honeywell Center in Wabash. Potential grant applicants are strongly encouraged to attend to get tips on how to complete the Foundation's grant application. The program will take place in the Honeywell Room from 8:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. The Honeywell Center is located at 275 W. Market Street.

Foundation staff members will provide a brief overview of the grant process, clarify what the Foundation's application asks for and answer questions. Light refreshments will be provided.

Anyone interested in attending this session should contact Cathy Tudor at the Foundation office by telephone at 260-982-4824 or via email at cathy@cfwabash.org.

The Community Foundation considers grant applications three times a year. The deadline for applications for the spring grant cycle is March 15, 2009. For more information, visit www.cfwabash.org.

Since 1954, the Community Foundation has put income generated from donors' investments to work in Wabash County. Grants from the Foundation's "Good Deeds Endowment" help strengthen education, support the arts, promote civic life, protect our environment, and ensure strong health and social services. The Foundation, which serves all of Wabash County, is located at 218 E. Main Street in North Manchester. The office phone number is 260-982-4824.
